EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE EXCEPTIONS AND BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF EXCEPTIONS

This second request for an extension of time in the above-referenced cases is granted.[1] The due date for the receipt in Washington, D.C. of Exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's Decision and Brief in Support of Exceptions is extended to December 4, 2017. This extension of time to file exceptions and brief in support of exceptions applies to all parties. No further extensions of time to file exceptions and brief in support will be granted.

[1] Please note that the NLRB's Rules and Regulations Section 102.2(c) states that "[r]equests for extensions of time filed within 3 days of the due date must be grounded upon circumstances not reasonably foreseeable in advance." The due date for exceptions is December 1, 2017 and the request for an extension of time was filed on November 29, 2017, which is only two business days prior to the document's due date. Despite being filed within three days of the due date, the only statement in the request for extension of time regarding why the extension was "not reasonably foreseeable in advance" is that the due date for responses and memorandum in another case that Respondent's counsel has been working on was extended and that it "becomes impossible to work on two cases at the same time." It is not clear from this statement how the circumstances were not reasonably unforeseeable in advance. However, given that Counsel for the General Counsel does not oppose the extension, assuming that no further extensions are granted (Charging Party had not yet responded regarding the extension request at the time it was filed), and the amount of additional time requested is not excessive, we will allow the extension.
